

A recommendation for Empowerment Coaching Network Training from Christopher McCluskey, Founder of Professional Christian Coaching Institute, March 28, 2011

"This is really solid, Biblically-grounded, professional-quality Christian coaching, and it is more clearly so than any I have seen to this point. Part of what makes it so powerful is its clarity – it is grounded in "dense" theology but what comes across in your explanations is quite accessible to the ordinary layman. You have really done an outstanding job of conveying the beauty and power and simplicity of what a coach approach is all about! I can say without hesitation that the people you have trained would be able to enter PCCI, effective immediately, with the full tuition they paid to you for your training discounted from their tuition for our Essentials of Coaching course."
